SOME SPORTING NOTES

How East Liverpool Defeated Niles Friday.

THERE WAS NO GAME SATURDAY

As It Rained Too Hard, but the Boys Enjoyed Themselves Just the Same--A Good Game Promised For Tomorrow--The Lineup of the Teams.

The East Liverpool ball club returned home from Niles on the midnight train Saturday night, and report a very enjoyable trip. The boys were shown all through the tin mill at that place and brought many souvenirs of their journey.

Rain interfered with the game Saturday, and as Niles had secured Johnson, an ex-member of the Wheeling Interstate league team, to pitch the game for them, they were consequently greatly disappointed, and wanted the Liverpool team to stay over until today and play the game, but the team could not do so. The management of the club then endeavored to secure dates for two more games to be played, and it is probable that Manager Morris will accept their terms and the games will be played in the near future, as the home team is very anxious to take the trip over again.

The Niles team was considerably surprised by the article of ball the Liverpool team played Friday, as they were of the opinion that their team could not be defeated by any amateur club in the state. Carey arrived in time to take his position on third after the first inning and the boys batted like fiends, making seven hits in the fourth inning. Niles was unable to hit Albright safely, and used all kinds of tricks to win the game, England playing the dirtiest kind of ball--he at one time deliberately throwing sand in Carey's eyes in the hope of making him drop the ball. Godwin and Kennedy played short and second in the finest style, accepting anything that came near them. The boys are of the opinion that had they been able to play Saturday's game they would have had another victory to their credit. Following is a complete score of Friday's game:

TEAM	R	H	E	P	A	E

SUMMARY.

Earned runs--Liverpool 7; Niles 4.
Two base hits--Godwin, J. Carey, W. Carey, Williams.
Struck out--By Knox, 2; by England, 1; by Albright, 3.
Bases on balls--By Albright, 8; by Knox, 2.
Hit by pitcher--By Albright, 1; by Knox, 1.
Wild pitch--England 1.
Double plays--East Liverpool 3.

The Liverpool people will recognize among the Niles team a great many ex-Interstate league players. Their team is a salaried one, which gives the home boys a great deal more credit for defeating them.

The Crackjacks went to New Cumberland Saturday, but didn't play, as it rained too hard.

The makeup of the teams for tomorrow are as follows:

LIVERPOOL	Position	HOLY GHOST
Finch	Catcher	Salmon
McShane	Pitcher	Campbell
Godwin	Shortstop	McCarroll
Heckathorn	First base	Brady
Kennedy	Second base	D. Salmon
Carey	Third base	McKenna
Albright	Left field	Delehanty
McNutt	Center field	Reardon
Reark	Right field	Grimes
Twaddle	Substitute	Pulinski

The game promises to be one of the finest seen here this season.

The Washington correspondent of the Sporting Life this week says: "Mercer has pitched in 12 winning games, lost two and tied one. Could Rusie equal this? It is a pleasure to watch Mercer pitch. Everything is done easily and gracefully, and he never loses his temper or becomes discouraged with poor support. He is deliberate, but not quite so such an extent as when Manager Schmelz introduced him here in 1893. He was thought slower than Cuppy in those days."

Carey in four games played last week has a record of one run, four hits, 40 putouts and two assists, without an error. He secured a two-bagger and a three-bagger during the week.

Mercer is second in a popular guessing contest in Washington. Joyce is the leader in the affair.

In a list of averages given this week Mercer stands 97 in batting, with an average of .250. Among the pitchers, he is in thirteenth place, with a per cent of .225.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

The Occasion Fittingly Observed in East Liverpool.

Children's day was fittingly observed in this city yesterday, in the different churches. At the First M. E. church the decorations were very tasty and beautiful, and attracted much favorable comment. The platform was a perfect bank of lovely ferns and flowers, rendered still more handsome by the working in of appropriate mottoes. The program was a pleasing one, the little ones, and children of larger growth, enacting their respective parts in a highly gratifying manner, reflecting credit upon those in charge of affairs.

At the First Presbyterian church, Children's day was fittingly observed in the morning. The pulpit was prettily decorated with palms, laurels and other beautiful plants. A pleasing program was carried out, including special music for the occasion. All the participants acquitted themselves in a commendable manner, and the event was one of genuine enjoyment to the large congregation present.

The Methodist Protestant church was tastefully decorated with bunting, palms, laurel and ferns, and the program was one of exceptional merit. A special feature of the services was the exquisite singing by the choir, which was of a high order.

NOT ONE ARMATURE

Was Burnt Out Says Superintendent Andrews.

Superintendent Andrews says the report about 30 armatures being burnt out and some of the cars being struck by lightning during the storm of Sunday a week ago is not true, and that nothing of the kind happened. The orders had been issued previous to the day that in case of a storm the motorman were to pull the trolley down and allow the car to stand until the storm abated. The power was shut off at the power house, and it would have been impossible to run the cars even if the motorman so desired. As Superintendent Andrews did not arrive home until last night, he says it was impossible to correct the story earlier. The result of the storm was given to the NEWS REVIEW by Secretary Davies, who stated that 12 armatures were burnt out. Take your choice.

SAVED A HOUSE.

Prompt Work of Potters Prevent a Conflagration.

A party of pressers from Knowles' old end pottery, while spending the day at Beaver creek Friday last, by their timely efforts prevented the house formerly occupied by Lige Jackson, just below Alum Cliff place, from burning down. One of the number noticed smoke issuing from the building, and giving the alarm to his companions, they all hurried to the scene, and procuring buckets, carried water from the creek and managed to extinguish the blaze, which meanwhile had burst forth from the roof. The prompt work of the potters saved a conflagration, and had they not been present in that vicinity at the time it is quite probable that the building would have been destroyed. The damage to the house is slight. A defective flue was the cause of the fire.

IN HIS WINDPIPE.

A Cracker Came Near Causing Ferdinand Oschmann's Death.

Ferdinand Oschmann, while eating soup this morning, came near losing his life. He had placed crackers in the bowl and one of them became lodged in his windpipe. Mr. Oschmann tried to get it out, but turned black in the face and fell to the floor. People who saw it thought at first the gentleman was joking, but soon discovered he was choking to death. They quickly ran to his aid and by dint of strenuous efforts succeeded in expelling the obstacle from its place of lodgment. A physician was sent for in the meantime, but he was not needed upon his arrival, as Mr. Oschmann had thoroughly recovered.

Two Bricks.

The brick itself and the fellow who threw it. The following about "holiness" Ward comes from Beaver, the county seat: "The man George Ward, who raised such a rumpus by preaching on a street corner at Beaver Falls a few nights ago, held forth here last night. He mounted a box in front of a drug store and began talking, when someone hit him on the back of the neck with a brickbat and knocked him out."

PULLED A POKER JOINT

Officers Meanor and Earl Made a Raid Saturday Night.

THREE LAWBREAKERS CAPTURED

Officer Earl Fired Two Shots--Proprietor Fined--Others Will Stand Trial--Constable Bertele Arrested James Mullen--Haley and Hontzleman Put on the Street.

A poker joint on lower Broadway was raided last Saturday night by Officers Earl and Meanor, and three inmates of the place, including the proprietor, were placed under arrest. A number of others who were present at the festive gathering eluded the officer by making a hurried exit through the rear of the building and speeding away in the direction of the river. Their progress was greatly accelerated by two shots fired from Officer Earl's revolver. The fugitives jumped into a skiff and rowed rapidly to the other side of the river, taking refuge on the ferryboat.

The scene of the raid was in the upper story of a tumble down frame building on lower Broadway, formerly used as a wholesale liquor establishment. The officers have had a suspicion for some time that a violation of the law was taking place there, consequently the building was kept under strict surveillance, until a favorable opportunity presented itself. The time for action came Saturday night, with the result that James Delaney, Robert Haughton and the proprietor, Mackillhane, were landed in the toils. The latter denied that any gambling was going on, but the evidence showed to the contrary, and Mackillhane paid $5 and costs.

Haughton and Delaney both plead not guilty to a charge of gambling and will stand trial. They are still in jail.

James Mullen was arrested by Constable Bertele yesterday morning. He was acting in a very disorderly manner at his home near the ice plant and the constable rang up the patrol. Mullen begged piteously not to be taken down in the wagon, expressing his willingness to quietly walk to the city hall. Tony relented, and when the patrol and four firemen arrived on the scene their services were not needed. Mullen was fined $5 and costs. Being without the wherewithal he is still in jail.

John Hailey and St. Hontzleman were placed on the streets this morning to work out their fines. The former has a decided antipathy to work, and consequently, after handling the shovel for a short time, concluded to take French leave, which he did without the formality of saying adieu to those who had been so kind to him during his transient visit at Hotel Gilbert.

Edward Davidson was arrested Friday night and fined $7.00, on a fast driving charge. He paid up.

Doctor Williams appeared before the mayor and made complaint against Harrison Rinehart on a similar charge. The latter, complainant avers, by fast driving, caused a pony ridden by the doctor's son to take fright and the lad was thrown to the earth and injured. He was fined $9.60.

WARD AGAIN.

He Did Battle With the Devil and His Right Bower.

The Beaver Star of Saturday says: "His holiness, Ward, whose name has appeared in our columns several times recently, took up his stand on a grocery box in front of Hugo Anderson's store, and began in a loud voice to do battle with the devil and his right bower, drug store whisky. Tobacco, snuff and sectarian churches also were in for their share of blame in the world's decline. He chose as his text, 'In Whatsoever City You Enter, Inquire Who is Worthy,' and drew from it the beautiful thought that all churches and that all worldly pleasures were worthy of damnation. His sermon was written in the Whitcomb Ryle dialect, with a few grammatical changes to suit the masses. There was neither a convert nor trouble."

FOUGHT THE EXPRESSMAN.

James Johnson Attacked by Two Lads Saturday Afternoon.

As Expressman James Johnson was driving up Second street late Saturday afternoon two lads named Buchheit and McFarland yelled "scab" at him. The former stopped and began to remonstrate with them for calling him such a name, but with the result that he got more abuse. Buchheit and McFarland finally dared Johnson to get down off his wagon, telling him what they would do to him. The expressman complied with the invitation, and stepping down was at once attacked by the two, who struck Johnson a number of blows. John Rinehart, seeing the unequal struggle, rushed out and put a stop to the affair. Mr. Johnson may have his assailants arrested for unprovoked assault.

A FINE PROGRAM

Is That Prepared For the Reception Tomorrow Evening.

The program for the reception to be given Dr. John Lloyd Lee at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening has been completed, and includes the best talent procurable in the city. Last week, in mentioning the reception, we stated that Presbyterians only were invited. We were misinformed, however, as we since learn that both Presbyterians and their friends are cordially requested to be present. Too much praise cannot be accorded the ladies who arranged the affair, as the following program will show:

Music	Choir
Tod Macrum, accompanist
Instrumental solo	Miss Carrie Kountz
Vocal solo	George Davidson
Instrumental solo	Mrs. At Thomas
Recitation	Miss Ella Huston
Infant Class Choir
Vocal duet
Misses Nellie Adams and Sarah Jane
Instrumental solo	Miss Ida Huston
Vocal solo	Anubrose Cartwright
Vocal duet
Misses Georgie McLane and Allie Laush
Vocal solo	Miss Blanche Bray
Vocal solo	Professor Harpe
Instrumental Duet
Misses Clara Chapman and Ida Huston
Vocal solo	Mrs. J. C. Thompson
Farewell chorus

The ladies having in charge the surprise for their pastor are meeting with flattering encouragement on every hand, and the success of their efforts will be seen tomorrow night.

A BURNING SHAME.

Let Our Workmen and Manufacturers Read This.

The government at Washington City has just invested the snug sum of $5,000 in white ware, for the use of the Indians. Did the government patronize home industries and buy the product of American potteries? Did the government aim to protect our citizens, even to this extent? No; the government did nothing of the kind, but placed the order with importers, it being simply impossible for home manufacturers to get anywhere near the prices quoted for foreign ware. Is this not a burning shame? Does it not speak in thunder tones against the curse of free trade? Does it not speak in common sense condemnation of the men who have failed to give adequate protection to home and home industries.

RETURNED HOME.

The Excursion Party Arrive on the Keystone State.

The excursion party that left the city for Cincinnati on the Virginia last Sunday week returned home yesterday on the Keystone State, having spent two days in Cincinnati. They report a most enjoyable time and say that the story in regard to the Virginia being struck by lightning was a "fake," as the nearest approach to it was an unusually large clap of thunder. The persons composing the party were: Superintendent Andrews and wife; Heber Blythe and wife; Charles Stevenson and wife; Wellsville; W. B. Francey and wife; Toronto; Messrs. B. F. Beers, Wheeling; John E. Nichols, H. S. Bristol and Mr. and Mrs. Huscroft, Steubenville.

THOSE BIG FREIGHT ENGINES.

Seven of Them Have Arrived and are at the Roundhouse.

Seven of the new class R freight engines, to be used on the Cleveland and Pittsburg division, have arrived, and are at present stationed in the roundhouse at Wellsville. The remaining three yet to come are expected today. The locomotives are in excellent condition, and look as if they were just turned out of the shops for the first time. Being larger and more powerful than the present freight engine in use on the river their service will be invaluable, notably in ascending heavy grades with a long train of cars. The engines will be pressed into service at once.

Social Notes.

The dance given Saturday night at Bradshaw hall was largely attended, and was an enjoyable affair.

Arrangements are being made to open Brunt's hall on next Friday night with a reception. As it has been a long time since a dance was given in this hall, there is no doubt that a large crowd will be present.

The Lotus club and their friends picnic at Columbian park tomorrow.

The Campground Club.

The Footstones of the camp ground, are playing ball with the Hobos, of Wellsville, at the latter place this afternoon.

SEPARATION GRANTED

From a Brutal and Drunken Husband.

AN ILL-TREATED SALEM WOMAN

Wants a Divorce and Alimony From a Husband Who Has Threatened to Beat Out Her Brains--A Damage Case Settled. News of the Courts.

Lisbon, June 15.--[Special]--Mrs. John E. Beavan, who was formerly Miss Lillie Weikert, of Washingtonville, was divorced and restored to her maiden name by Judge Smith this morning. In 1893 she married John Beavan, and for two years was subjected to much abuse. In stating her case to the court she told how, at the time of the birth of her child, the husband left her and joined in an excursion to a ball game, and returned in an intoxicated condition. In a few days the child died, and although Beavan was in town, he refused to attend the funeral, or to give it a decent Christian burial. At this time she left him and began action for a divorce.

A divorce and alimony action was filed this morning in common pleas court asking that Mrs. Elizabeth Morris be legally separated from Stephen Morris, whom she married 30 years ago in Salem. Cruel and inhuman treatment, she charges against him, and the grounds upon which she bases her action specify a number of instances in which he struck her and threatened to take her life by beating out her brains. For the past two years he has not spoken a pleasant word to her, always cursing and calling her indecent names in the presence of their children. On the 30th of May she was obliged, she says, to leave her home and take up residence with her daughter in Salem. She asks that the court set off her share in his property, which consists of a farm in Mahoning county and a large amount of personal property. She states that she is entirely without means of support, and he has published a notice refusing to pay any of her debts, and is now about to encumber his property. She wants him enjoined from so doing, and also wants the custody of their minor child. Honora Ready's action to recover $600 damages from the village of Leontonia for injuries to her property was called in court Saturday afternoon, and a verdict found in her favor for $10 and costs, amounting in all to $150. Her property was damaged by being flooded during storms.

Marriage licenses were issued to Edward J. Hogan and Maud E. Hoffstat, George A. McElroy and Annie J. Degnon, and John G. Charlton and Mary A. Davis.

PONIES RAN OFF

And a Wagon Load of Brooms Was Spilled on Second Street.

A team of ponies attached to a wagon containing a load of brooms took fright at a passing street car on Second street late Saturday afternoon, and ran off. The contents of the wagon were spilled along the street for the length of several blocks. The team was finally stopped, and the owner of the outfit, a Wellsville man, drove back and gathered up his scattered brooms. Fortunately no damage was sustained by the runoff.

Republican National Convention.

On June 12, 13, 14 and 15 special low rate excursion tickets will be sold on Pennsylvania lines, account Republican National convention, good for return until June 21, inclusive, or one day after adjournment of convention. For particulars apply to Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, Ohio, who will also reserve Pullman car accommodation from Steubenville.

They Will Meet.

A meeting of all interested in the public library has been called for tomorrow evening, at which time all necessary arrangements for the government of the institution will be made.

Poles Taken Over.

The telephone poles to be used in the construction of the telephone line across the river, to extend to Burgettstown, are being taken over today, and will be erected at once.

Died This Morning.

John Austin, father of Reuben Austin, an employee of the freight depot, died at his home in Glasgow this morning. A post mortem examination is being held this afternoon.

Entered Suit.

Jacob Shenkle this morning entered suit against Harry Lowe for forcible detention of property. The case will be heard by Squire Manley June 18th, at 9 o'clock.

Two Bricks.

The brick itself and the fellow who threw it. The following about "holiness" Ward comes from Beaver, the county seat: "The man George Ward, who raised such a rumpus by preaching on a street corner at Beaver Falls a few nights ago, held forth here last night. He mounted a box in front of a drug store and began talking, when someone hit him on the back of the neck with a brickbat and knocked him out."

PULLED A POKER JOINT

Officers Meanor and Earl Made a Raid Saturday Night.

THREE LAWBREAKERS CAPTURED

Officer Earl Fired Two Shots--Proprietor Fined--Others Will Stand Trial--Constable Bertele Arrested James Mullen--Haley and Hontzleman Put on the Street.

A poker joint on lower Broadway was raided last Saturday night by Officers Earl and Meanor, and three inmates of the place, including the proprietor, were placed under arrest. A number of others who were present at the festive gathering eluded the officer by making a hurried exit through the rear of the building and speeding away in the direction of the river. Their progress was greatly accelerated by two shots fired from Officer Earl's revolver. The fugitives jumped into a skiff and rowed rapidly to the other side of the river, taking refuge on the ferryboat.

The scene of the raid was in the upper story of a tumble down frame building on lower Broadway, formerly used as a wholesale liquor establishment. The officers have had a suspicion for some time that a violation of the law was taking place there, consequently the building was kept under strict surveillance, until a favorable opportunity presented itself. The time for action came Saturday night, with the result that James Delaney, Robert Haughton and the proprietor, Mackillhane, were landed in the toils. The latter denied that any gambling was going on, but the evidence showed to the contrary, and Mackillhane paid $5 and costs.

Haughton and Delaney both plead not guilty to a charge of gambling, and will stand trial. They are still in jail.

James Mullen was arrested by Constable Bertele yesterday morning. He was acting in a very disorderly manner at his home near the ice plant and the constable rang up the patrol. Mullen begged piteously not to be taken down in the wagon, expressing his willingness to quietly walk to the city hall. Tony relented, and when the patrol and four firemen arrived on the scene their services were not needed. Mullen was fined $5 and costs. Being without the wherewithal he is still in jail.

John Bailey and St Hontzleman were placed on the streets this morning to work out their fines. The former has a decided antipathy to work, and consequently, after handling the shovel for a short time, concluded to take French leave, which he did without the formality of saying adieu to those who had been so kind to him during his transient visit at Hotel Gilbert.

Edward Davidson was arrested Friday night and fined $7.00, on a fast driving charge. He paid up.

Doctor Williams appeared before the mayor and made complaint against Harrison Rinehart on a similar charge. The latter, complainant avers, by fast driving, caused a pony ridden by the doctor's son to take fright and the lad was thrown to the earth and injured. He was fined $9.50.

WARD AGAIN.

He Did Battle With the Devil and His Right Bower.

The Beaver Star of Saturday says: "His holiness, Ward, whose name has appeared in our columns several times recently, took up his stand on a grocery box in front of Hugo Anderson's store, and began in a loud voice to do battle with the devil and his right bower, drug store whisky. Tobacco, snuff and sectarian churches also were in for their share of blame in the world's decline. He chose as his text, 'In Whosoever City You Enter, Inquire Who is Worthy,' and drew from it the beautiful thought that all churches and that all worldly pleasures were worthy of damnation. His sermon was written in the Whitcomb Riley dialect, with a few grammatical changes to suit the masses. There was neither a convert nor trouble."

FOUGHT THE EXPRESSMAN.

James Johnson Attacked by Two Lads Saturday Afternoon.

As Expressman James Johnson was driving up Second street late Saturday afternoon two lads named Buchheit and McFarland yelled "scab" at him. The former stopped and began to remonstrate with them for calling him such a name, but with the result that he got more abuse. Buchheit and McFarland finally dared Johnson to get down off his wagon, telling him what they would do to him. The expressman complied with the invitation, and stepping down was at once attacked by the two, who struck Johnson a number of blows. John Rinehart, seeing the unequal struggle, rushed out and put a stop to the affair. Mr. Johnson may have his assailants arrested for unprovoked assault.

A FINE PROGRAM

Is That Prepared For the Reception Tomorrow Evening.

The program for the reception to be given Dr. John Lloyd Lee at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening has been completed, and includes the best talent procurable in the city. Last week, in mentioning the reception, we stated that Presbyterians only were invited. We were misinformed, however, as we since learn that both Presbyterians and their friends are cordially requested to be present. Too much praise cannot be accorded the ladies who arranged the affair, as the following program will show:

Music.....Choir
Vocal solo.....Miss Carrie Kountz
Vocal solo.....Miss Ida Huston
Instrumental solo.....Mrs. At Thomas
Vocal solo.....Miss Ella Huston
Infant Class Choir
Vocal duet.....Misses Nettie Adams and Sarah James
Instrumental solo.....Miss Ida Huston
Vocal solo.....Misses Clara Chapman and Ida Huston
Vocal duet.....Mrs. J. O. Thompson
Farewell chorus

The ladies having in charge the surprise for their pastor are meeting with flattering encouragement on every hand, and the success of their efforts will be seen tomorrow night.

A BURNING SHAME.

Let Our Workmen and Manufacturers Read This.

The government at Washington City has just invested the snug sum of $5,000 in white ware, for the use of the Indians. Did the government patronize home industries and buy the product of American potteries? Did the government aim to protect our citizens, even to this extent? No; the government did nothing of the kind, but placed the order with importers, it being simply impossible for home manufacturers to get anywhere near the prices quoted for foreign ware. Is this not a burning shame? Does it not speak in thunder tones against the curse of free trade? Does it not speak in common sense condemnation of the men who have failed to give adequate protection to home and home industries.

RETURNED HOME.

The Excursion Party Arrive on the Keystone State.

The excursion party that left the city for Cincinnati on the Virginia last Sunday week returned home yesterday on the Keystone State, having spent two days in Cincinnati. They report a most enjoyable time and say that the story in regard to the Virginia being struck by lightning was a "fake," as the nearest approach to it was an unusually large clap of thunder. The persons composing the party were: Superintendent Andrews and wife; Heber Blythe and wife; Charles Stevenson and wife, Wellsville; W. B. Francy and wife, Toronto; Messrs. E. F. Beers, Wheeling; John E. Nichols, H. S. Bristor and Mr. and Mrs. Huscroft, Steubenville.

Those Big Freight Engines.

Seven of Them Have Arrived and are at the Roundhouse.

Seven of the new class R freight engines, to be used on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh division, have arrived, and are at present stationed in the roundhouse at Wellsville. The remaining three yet to come are expected today. The locomotives are in excellent condition, and look as if they were just turned out of the shops for the first time. Being larger and more powerful than the present freight engine in use on the road their service will be invaluable, notably in ascending heavy grades with a long train of cars. The engines will be pressed into service at once.

Social Notes.

The dance given Saturday night at Bradshaw hall was largely attended, and was an enjoyable affair.

Arrangements are being made to open Brunt's hall on next Friday night with a reception. As it has been a long time since a dance was given in this hall, there is no doubt that a large crowd will be present.

The Lotus club and their friends picnic at Columbian park tomorrow.

The Campground Club.

The Footstools, of the camp ground, are playing ball with the Hobos, of Wellsville, at the latter place this afternoon.

SEPARATION GRANTED

From a Brutal and Drunken Husband.

AN ILL-TREATED SALEM WOMAN

Wants a Divorce and Alimony From a Husband Who Has Threatened to Beat Out Her Brains--A Damage Case Settled. News of the Courts.

Lisbon, June 15.--[Special]--Mrs. John E. Beavan, who was formerly Miss Lillie Weikert, of Washingtonville, was divorced and restored to her maiden name by Judge Smith this morning. In 1893 she married John Beavan, and for two years was subjected to much abuse. In stating her case to the court she told how, at the time of the birth of her child, the husband left her and joined in an excursion to a ball game, and returned in an intoxicated condition. In a few days the child died, and although Beavan was in town, he refused to attend the funeral, or to give it a decent Christian burial. At this time she left him and began action for a divorce.

A divorce and alimony action was filed this morning in common pleas court asking that Mrs. Elizabeth Morris be legally separated from Stephen Morris, whom she married 30 years ago in Salem. Cruel and inhuman treatment, she charges against him, and the grounds upon which she bases her action specify a number of instances in which he struck her and threatened to take her life by beating out her brains. For the past two years he has not spoken a pleasant word to her, always cursing and calling her indecent names in the presence of their children. On the 20th of May she was obliged, she says, to leave her home and take up residence with her daughter in Salem. She asks that the court set off her share in his property, which consists of a farm in Mahoning county and a large amount of personal property. She states that she is entirely without means of support, and he has published a notice refusing to pay any of her debts, and is now about to encumber his property. She wants him enjoined from so doing, and also wants the custody of their minor child.

Honora Ready's action to recover $600 damages from the village of Lectoria for injuries to her property was called in court Saturday afternoon, and a verdict found in her favor for $10 and costs, amounting in all to $150. Her property was damaged by being flooded during storms.

Marriage licenses were issued to Edward J. Hogan and Maud E. Hoffstot, George A. McElroy and Annie J. Degnon, and John G. Charlton and Mary A. Davis.

PONIES RAN OFF

And a Wagon Load of Brooms Was Spilled on Second Street.

A team of ponies attached to a wagon containing a load of brooms took fright at a passing street car on Second street late Saturday afternoon, and ran off. The contents of the wagon were spilled along the street for the length of several blocks. The team was finally stopped, and the owner of the outfit, a Wellsville man, drove back and gathered up his scattered brooms. Fortunately no damage was sustained by the runoff.

Republican National Convention.

On June 12, 13, 14 and 15 special low rate excursion tickets will be sold on Pennsylvania lines, account Republican National convention, good for return until June 21, inclusive, or one day after adjournment of convention. For particulars apply to Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, Ohio, who will also reserve Pullman car accommodation from Steubenville.

They Will Meet.

A meeting of all interested in the public library has been called for tomorrow evening, at which time all necessary arrangements for the government of the institution will be made.

Poles Taken Over.

The telephone poles to be used in the construction of the telephone line across the river, to extend to Burgettstown, are being taken over today, and will be erected at once.

Died This Morning.

John Austin, father of Reuben Austin, an employee of the freight depot, died at his home in Glasgow this morning. A post mortem examination is being held this afternoon.

Entered Suit.

Jacob Shenkle this morning entered suit against Harry Lowe for forcible detention of property. The case will be heard by Squire Manley June 18th, at 9 o'clock.

She deserves to win; Spain deserves defeat. The insurgents have demonstrated that they are not a mass of malcontents. They are far more courageous and humane than their opponents. Cuba should win out. She is in the right; Spain in the wrong. Right must win.

ARMENIA.

Cursed by the lechery, treachery and cruelty of the lustful Turk, poor Armenia is indeed in a pitiable plight. The civilized and so-called Christian nations are bearing the burden of an awful sin and crime in permitting the Sultan to work out his will upon the defenseless people, and God will hold the Christian powers responsible for their neglect of plain duty. The history of the massacres in Armenia is an awful one, and almost exceeds belief. The awful pity is that the full horror of the situation is not told. God pity and help Armenia.

THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER.

He is a necessity to the community. He should be a power in the community. He should be respected, esteemed and looked up to. He should be upheld in the performance of every good and worthy act—every act on his part which, under Providence, tends to the uplift of humanity. When should a minister of the gospel be respected, esteemed and upheld? The answer can be given in very few words, namely: "When he performs his duty." Mere eloquence in the pulpit will not suffice. Words are cheap; advice is cheap. He must be a "doer" as well as an advocate of good deeds. He cannot be a true minister of the gospel and shirk the vital issues of the day. He may, in burning words of "pulpit" eloquence, defend the right and denounce the wrong, and still be but a "sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal." Here is the illustration, by anecdote: There were two ministers to speak from the same platform on a certain occasion. They were equally noted as orators; one for his burning words of eloquence from the pulpit, his beautifully rounded periods and sentences, and the delightful imagery he was want to indulge in, lulling his hearers to ease and contentment; but, when his sermon was ended, that was full duty performed; he was not a worker in the outside world. No 2 was noted for homely and at times uncouth phrases while upon the platform; but he always attracted the earnest attention of his audience and never permitted members thereof to slumber in their seats, as he had a way of driving vital questions home which would not be denied, while, to those who knew him best, he was an indefatigable and earnest worker in every movement which had for its object the good of the community at large and the bettering of the condition of those who needed help. In homely phraseology, "he was a worker from Workville." On this occasion, the gifted and eloquent minister delivered the first address, and he was at his very best, indulging in beautiful imagery, glowing sentences and flights of oratory, with promises of great and good deeds to be performed, to result in incalculable benefit to the city and inhabitants thereof. When he ceased he was warmly applauded, despite the fact that many in the audience knew that he was not a worker—simply a talker. Then No. 2 stepped to the front, and expectancy was on tip toe. He was known to be plucky and courageous; he was known to have spoken, in the past, from that same platform, words which, while simple, and almost crude, had aroused men and women to the performance of good deeds; he was known to have performed heroic deeds upon the streets in repressing lawlessness and the perpetrators thereof; he was known to have entered the chambers of council when members thereof were endeavoring to hinder the passage of good resolutions and the enactment of beneficial laws, and with hot words of condemnation, dare them to thus act in defiance of the wishes of their constituents; and now, in the face of an immense audience, great things were expected of him. He was equal to the emergency. Casting his eagle eye over the audience and rising to his full height, while almost oppressive silence surrounded him, he said, in tones as clear as a bell: "My friends—and I know that you are my friends—all that my brother has promised, I will fulfill!" That was all; but, as he took his seat, and the full breadth and meaning of the words were comprehended by those who knew both orators, the audience broke into hearty and long-continued applause, such as never before had resounded throughout the edifice.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Everything In Readiness For the Convention.

TEMPORARY OFFICERS SELECTED.

The Financial Plank the Only Thing That May Cause Trouble—The Contests For Seats About Settled—Many Names Mentioned For Vice President.

St. Louis, June 15.—When the Republican National convention is called to order to-morrow it will be found that the preliminaries have been looked after with exceptional thoroughness. There will be no obstacles in the way of immediately beginning the work for which the convention has been called, and present indications are that the meeting will not be of long duration.

The convention hall will be in complete readiness. The states are expected to have their recommendations for committee plans in readiness by tonight. The national committee has entirely concluded the consideration of the unusually long list of contests, and it is believed by those who have given attention to the subject that this work will be found to have been done so well that comparatively little will be left for the committee on credentials. Necessarily there has been no formal consideration of the declaration of principles upon which the party will make its appeal to the country, but it will be found that this branch of the work has been by no means neglected. There has been a very general exchange of views upon this important point, and much done looking to the harmonization and crystallization of views which it is believed will render it possible for the committee to reach a conclusion with comparatively little delay.

Selection has been made of the temporary chairman and other officers of the temporary organization, and a program practically agreed upon for the permanent organization, with Judge Thurston of Nebraska for presiding officer of the convention.

When we add to these accomplishments the fact that the presidential nominees have practically been named it must be conceded that the convention has apparently a comparatively easy and brief task before it. Obstacles may be encountered, but as yet comparatively few of them are discernible.

The length of time the convention shall sit will in all probability be determined largely by the plan of proceeding which shall be determined by the committee on credentials. If this committee should elect to reopen all the contests for seats in the convention and to make an original investigation of the various questions which these disputes cover the proceedings would be much delayed. These contests involve the right to 158 seats, and cover a wide range of controversy, including the comparative validity of many rival party organizations, state and district, and involving much of heated personal rivalry, race prejudice and factional jealousy, to say nothing of questions of proceeding in rival conventions and even of methods employed at the polls. There are stacks of papers that might be examined in almost every case.

The preponderance of opinion is that the credentials committee will not deem it necessary to go into many of the contests in detail. The convention also departed from the usual practice in hearing each case as a body and not in delegating the task to sub-committees. It is believed that this course will have a strong influence in commending the verdict in all cases to the committee to which the convention will formally assign the task of inquiring into the qualification of its members.

The defeated delegates generally regard the credentials committee in the light of a court of appeals, and in many cases they will insist upon a hearing. In exceptional instances this request will probably be granted and the committee will unanimously take up cases like that of Delaware, where both sides to the contest were denied seats, or like that of Arizona, which the names of both parties were placed upon the roll and each delegate awarded only half of a vote. It is even suggested that a proposition may be made in the convention to make the temporary roll permanent in all but exceptional cases, which would, of course, if adopted, relieve the committee on credentials of the greater part of its labor and materially expedite the work of the convention.

The contest in the committee on resolutions is expected to be sharp, but not protracted. As it now appears there will be little or no difficulty in agreeing upon any of the planks of the platform except that relating to the financial policy of the party. With the selection of a candidate to head the ticket so completely eliminated from the realm of speculation the financial question has almost entirely monopolized the attention of party men. This question is still claiming the greater share of consideration, and will continue to hold its place in the front rank of speculation and deliberation until it is finally settled by the convention itself.

Two problems present themselves. The first of these is how much to do for silver, the second how little to do for gold. Around these questions range the speculation and the interest of all. These lines of policy will be presented to the committee on resolutions upon meeting the different shades of opinion of the delegates. These are:

First.—To declare in explicit terms for the gold standard.

Second.—To take a positive stand for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, independent of the course of all other nations.

Third.—To practically declare for gold and against any further recognition to silver than the present laws give, except upon international agreement, but without mentioning in terms the gold standard and with a few words of encouragement to the friends of silver.

The contest will be principally between the advocates of the first and the second propositions, and, as it now appears, the outcome will be a compromise between these, which means, of course, that the platform will be almost all that the gold people will demand. The extreme gold forces will be led by the New York and Massachusetts delegations, seconded strongly by other eastern and Mississippi valley delegates.

The advocates of an extreme declaration for silver are confined largely to the delegations from the intermountain states, with some support from the Pacific coast and possibly a few scattering delegates from other sections. Their representation in the committee will be larger than in the convention, but neither is sufficient to obtain more than a respectful hearing. They are expected to announce that no compromise whatever will be acceptable to them, and to thus practically eliminate themselves from the work of preparing the platform. With the feature of the silver question removed from the deliberations of the committee it is not believed that its deliberations will be greatly prolonged.

One important question remaining unsettled is that of the selection of a vice presidential candidate. Next to the financial plank the filling of this place on the ticket has engaged the greatest share of speculative attention during the week, but apparently opinion has not been so well crystallized on this subject as upon others. The names of many candidates have been suggested, including those of Mr. Hobart of New Jersey, Governor Morton and General Tracy of New York, Governor Bulkeley and Senator Hawley of Connecticut, Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania, Representative Dingley of Maine, Hon. H. Clay Evans of Tennessee, Hon. M. H. De Young of California, ex-Governor D. Russell Brown and Governor Lippitt of Rhode Island and General McAlpin of New York.

The National Republican committee has nominated the following officers: C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana for temporary chairman, C. W. Johnson of Minnesota secretary, W. E. Riley of Kentucky, C. B. Humphreys and Harry H. Smith for assistant secretaries, J. H. Stone of Michigan, F. H. Wilson of Missouri, J. C. Malloy, of Ohio, R. S. Hatcher of Indiana, and J. R. Beall of New York reading clerks. Rabbi Samuel Sale of St. Louis was chosen chaplain.

QUAY HESITATING.

He Desires to Withdraw, but His Friends Object.

St. Louis, June 15.—Senator Quay's attitude in the convention continues to be the subject of no small degree of speculation. When asked whether his name would be presented as a presidential candidate the senator replied that the matter had not been definitely determined, but that it would probably depend upon the wishes of the friends of other candidates than McKinley. Mr. Quay is in a somewhat embarrassing position. He has for some time realized the certainty in his opinion of McKinley's nomination, and has advised the other candidates acquiesce in the inevitable and retire from the contest. Hence he finds himself hesitating between his own inclination to get out of the way of the McKinley movement and a desire to comply with the wishes of his co-workers.

A prominent member of the national committee asserted that Mr. Quay was still urging upon other candidates the advisability of allowing the McKinley nomination to be made by acclamation, and that, failing to secure their acquiescence, he would probably when Pennsylvania was reached in the roll call, withdraw from the contest and throw his Pennsylvania vote to the Ohio candidate.

THE OHIO DELEGATION.

Many Clubs Take Part In the Parade In St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 15.—All of the Ohio delegates are in except the four district delegates from Cincinnati, who arrive with the Blaine and Lincoln clubs today. The Tippecanoe club from Cleveland also arrives today. Many Ohio clubs and excursions have arrived, among them being the McKinley club of Canton, which is very large. Members of this club carried all secrets of articles manufactured since the tariff of 1890.

The Buckeye club of Columbus, organized while McKinley was governor, also gave a fine street parade. These clubs, all from Ohio, marched to the Southern hotel and cheered the McKinley headquarters. The Ohio clubs will join in the parade today.

It is understood that Governor Bushnell will be made chairman. Other selections will likely be as follows: On the committees: Resolutions, J. B. Foraker; credentials, A. C. Thompson; permanent organization, John A. Caldwell; rules and order of business, C. H. Grosvenor; member of national committee, C. L. Kurtz.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATES.

Governor Hastings to Be Chairman of the Delegation.

Nearly all members of the Pennsylvania delegation have arrived. A meeting of the delegates will be held tonight. It is expected that Governor Hastings will be chairman of the delegation, and there is a probability that Mr. Quay may be a member of the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Quay can be national committee-man if he wants it, but it is understood that he does not care to be a member of the committee.

In Pennsylvania there was a contest in the Third district. The contesting delegations were both admitted, each delegate having a half vote.

APPROVED BY SECRETARY SMITH

The Schedule of Allotment to the Southern Ute Indians.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The schedule of allotments to the Southern Ute Indians in Colorado, which has been hanging fire since last autumn, has been finally approved by Secretary Hoke Smith. There are 335 names on the allotment rolls.

Immediate steps will be taken by the Indian bureau to put into effect the provisions of the Indian appropriation bill, which established the main agency of the Southern Utes at Navajoe Springs in the west or unceded part of the agency and substituted a sub-agency for the old agency at Ignacio.

Thanked President Kruger.

PRETORIA, June 15.—Deputations with the mayors of all the towns of South Africa waited upon President Kruger to thank him for his clemency to the convicted reformers. President Kruger pointed to the Bible with the remark that there was his guide. He then referred to Cecil Rhodes who, he said, was acting as if he were egging on a dog fight. He, who had caused the trouble, was still unpunished.

Senator Culom Visits McKinley.

CANTON, O., June 15.—Senator Culom has reached Canton and spent the day with Major McKinley. He says there is no doubt but that McKinley will be nominated and he thinks the past 24 hours have insured a sound money platform. He has no choice for the second place.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Colonel Francis W. Rhodes, brother of Cecil Rhodes, has been escorted to the border of the South African republic by Boer officials.

Postmaster General Wilson has issued a fraud order against Ernst Schmidt and A. R. Schmidt of St. Louis for operating a scheme for selling loaded gambling devices.

Ex-Governor Alpheus Kelch has died at Ann Arbor, Mich. He was 92 years of age and a native of Maine.

John S. Turner shot and killed his cousin, Green Turner, near Middleboro, Ky. Green's brother, Sam Turner, was killed at the same place ten days ago. All parties are connected with the famous Turner family of the Partin-Turner feud. Fifteen of the family have died by violence.

At Tunis, ten miles from Caldwell, Tex., Jessie Massey and J. T. Chance have been foully murdered by unknown parties. Massey received 22 buckshot and Chance 12. No clue to the murderers and indignation runs high.

DYNAMITE IN HAVANA.

Explosions Destroy the Stone Bridges Near the City.

MAY CUT OFF THE WATER SUPPLY.

The Spanish Generals Decide to Suspend Operations Owing to the Rainy Season. Food Is Becoming Scarce—Disease Prevalent.

HAVANA, June 15.—This city was startled and alarmed by the noise of two successive explosions, which shocked the ground for a long distance and was heard for several miles. Consternation prevailed for a time, as it was feared that this was a prelude to an attack or to a series of similar explosions. Excited throngs rushed to the streets, while an armed party proceeded in the direction from which the detonations had been heard. It was soon found that the stone bridges of Christina and Conch and the aqueduct of Fern in Septimo were the points that had suffered from the dynamite. The bridges were partially destroyed, and the pipes on the aqueduct, upon which the city is dependent for its water supply, were both damaged. It cannot yet be stated how long it will require to remedy it. Much anxiety is felt as to the future. It is believed that the insurgents are bent upon investing Havana by cutting off as much as possible the supply of necessities, though not by actually besieging it. All fruits and vegetables and fresh meats are unobtainably high priced and difficult to obtain, and milk is of the poorest, such as is brought in being much adulterated before it is doled out. There is much fever, and smallpox has broken out, and in the wholesome condition of affairs threatens to become epidemic. Failure of the water supply under these conditions is a dire calamity. A council of Spanish generals has decided to suspend operations against the insurgents owing to the rains.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

An Insane Man Kills His 13-Year-Old Nephew.

PITTSBURGH, June 15.—One of the most fiendish crimes committed in this locality for a long time was the work of William J. Richter, a grocer in the lower portion of Allegheny, Saturday afternoon. Richter struck James McConnell, his nephew, 13 years old, son of W. J. McConnell, the temperance lecturer, twice on the head with a hatchet, knocking two large holes in either side of the boy's skull just above the temples, from which he died.

Richter is said to have been insane for several years, and the manner of killing his little nephew had all the cunning frequently displayed by the criminal insane. His grocery is a small place with a frame addition in the rear. On the second floor of this addition is a small room, or sort of loft, used as a play room by the children. Saturday afternoon, while it was raining, Richter's children and James McConnell were in the playroom when he came in. After talking pleasantly to the group he suggested to his little girls to go down into the storeroom and get some ginger cakes.

He detained the boy with some talk, and as soon as the girls left the room picked up the hatchet and attacked the little fellow. The details of the struggle are of course unknown, but the general appearance of the room indicated that the boy had been quickly disposed of.

THE DOW LAW.

Liquor Dealers' Association Will Test Its Constitutionality.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—The recent decision by Attorney General Monnett, in which he holds that all wholesale dealers in malt or spirituous liquors sending traveling representatives over the state to solicit orders for their goods would be compelled to take out a license in each county visited by the agent, has caused a great deal of comment among dealers. The members of the State Liquor League have determined to fight the matter and test the constitutionality of the Dow liquor law. A meeting of a large number of the members of the league was held here Saturday, when the course referred to above was determined upon. Circulars have been sent to the members of the league throughout the state, apprising them of the course decided upon, and what further action is had in the matter will depend upon the outcome of a suit to be tried at Cleveland the coming week, in which the constitutionality of the Dow law is involved. If that case is decided against the liquor men it will be carried to the supreme court.

CUBA.

She deserves to win; Spain deserves defeat. The insurgents have demonstrated that they are not a mass of malcontents. They are far more courageous and humane than their opponents. Cuba should win out. She is in the right; Spain in the wrong. Right must win.

ARMENIA.

Cursed by the lechery, treachery and cruelty of the lustful Turk, poor Armenia is indeed in a pitiable plight. The civilized and so-called Christian nations are bearing the burden of an awful sin and crime in permitting the Sultan to work out his will upon the defenceless people, and God will hold the Christian powers responsible for their neglect of plain duty. The history of the massacres in Armenia is an awful one, and almost exceeds belief. The awful pity is that the full horror of the situation is not told. God pity and help Armenia.

THE EYES

Of this great nation are anxiously directed toward St. Louis. What will the harvest be? All the indications point to McKinley as the winner for first place. He is the choice of the people—the bread winners of the nation. He is a safe man to have in control of business and industrial interests. He is a safe man on the currency question. He will take care of the dignity of the nation, and will not permit the flag to be trailed in the dust. He should be the nominee of the Republican party. Can the combine defeat him? Can the wish and will of the masses be defeated?

THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER.

He is a necessity to the community. He should be a power in the community. He should be respected, esteemed and looked up to. He should be upheld in the performance of every good and worthy act—every act on his part which, under Providence, tends to the uplift of humanity. When should a minister of the gospel be respected, esteemed and upheld? The answer can be given in very few words, namely: "When he performs his duty." Mere eloquence in the pulpit will not suffice. Words are cheap; advice is cheap. He must be a "doer" as well as an advocate of good deeds. He cannot be a true minister of the gospel and shirk the vital issues of the day. He may, in burning words of "pulpit" eloquence, defend the right and denounce the wrong, and still be but a "sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal." Here is the illustration, by anecdote: There were two ministers to speak from the same platform on a certain occasion. They were equally noted as orators; one for his burning words of eloquence from the pulpit, his beautifully rounded periods and sentences, and the delightful imagery he was want to indulge in, lulling his hearers to ease and contentment; but, when his sermon was ended, that was full duty performed; he was not a worker in the outside world. No 2 was noted for homely and at times uncouth phrases while upon the platform; but he always attracted the earnest attention of his audience and never permitted members thereof to slumber in their seats, as he had a way of driving vital questions home which would not be denied, while, to those who knew him best, he was an indefatigable and earnest worker in every movement which had for its object the good of the community at large and the bettering of the condition of those who needed help. In homely phraseology, "he was a worker from Workville." On this occasion, the gifted and eloquent minister delivered the first address, and he was at his very best, indulging in beautiful imagery, glowing sentences and flights of oratory, with promises of great and good deeds to be performed, to result in incalculable benefit to the city and inhabitants thereof. When he ceased he was warmly applauded, despite the fact that many in the audience knew that he was not a worker—simply a talker. Then No. 2 stepped to the front, and expectancy was on tip toe. He was known to be plucky and courageous; he was known to have spoken, in the past, from that same platform, words which, while simple, and almost crude, had aroused men and women to the performance of good deeds; he was known to have performed heroic deeds upon the streets in repressing lawlessness and the perpetrators thereof; he was known to have entered the chambers of council when members thereof were endeavoring to hinder the passage of good resolutions and the enactment of beneficial laws, and, with hot words of condemnation, dare them to thus act in defiance of the wishes of their constituents; and now, in the face of an immense audience, great things were expected of him. He was equal to the emergency. Casting his eagle eye over the audience and rising to his full height, while almost oppressive silence surrounded him, he said, in tones as clear as a bell: "My friends—and I know that you are my friends—all that my brother has promised, I will fulfill!" That was all; but, as he took his seat, and the full breadth and meaning of the words were comprehended by those who knew both orators, the audience broke into hearty and long-continued applause, such as never before had resounded throughout the edifice.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Everything In Readiness For the Convention.

TEMPORARY OFFICERS SELECTED.

The Financial Plank the Only Thing That May Cause Trouble—The Contests For Seats About Settled—Many Names Mentioned For Vice President.

St. Louis, June 15.—When the Republican National convention is called to order to-morrow it will be found that the preliminaries have been looked after with exceptional thoroughness. There will be no obstacles in the way of immediately beginning the work for which the convention has been called, and present indications are that the meeting will not be of long duration. The convention hall will be in complete readiness. The states are expected to have their recommendations for committee plans in readiness by tonight. The national committee has entirely concluded the consideration of the unusually long list of contests, and it is believed by those who have given attention to the subject that this work will be found to have been done so well that comparatively little will be left for the committee on credentials. Necessarily there has been no formal consideration of the declaration of principles upon which the party will make its appeal to the country, but it will be found that this branch of the work has been by no means neglected. There has been a very general exchange of views upon this important point, and much done looking to the harmonization and crystallization of views which it is believed will render it possible for the committee to reach a conclusion with comparatively little delay.

Selection has been made of the temporary chairman and other officers of the temporary organization, and a program practically agreed upon for the permanent organization, with Judge Thurston of Nebraska for presiding officer of the convention.

When we add to these accomplishments the fact that the presidential nominees have practically been named it must be conceded that the convention has apparently a comparatively

THREE SENSATIONAL SUITS.

A Divorce Case Which Causes Two Other Suits to Follow.

ZANESVILLE, O., June 15.—Three sensational suits have been filed in the common pleas court and some exceedingly racy developments are promised. The first suit to be filed was by Eliza Fox, against her husband, Charles Fox, a prominent and wealthy resident of this city. She names Mrs. Emma Huskins, a lady living in the aristocratic part of the city, as co-respondent.

A little later Allen Huskins, husband of the woman named in the other petition, filed a suit for divorce and at the same time filed a suit against Fox for $10,000 damages for alienation of his wife's affections. Fox is of a prominent family and is reputed to be very wealthy.

ACCUSEE MAKES A REPORT.

Efforts Being Made to Get the Seiberling Company on Its Feet.

AKRON, O., June 15.—W. H. Carter, assignee of the J. E. Seiberling company, manufacturers of Empire reapers and mowers has filed a schedule of assets and liabilities of the defunct concern. Bills receivable, $241,500, is the principal item in the assets, though machines on hand and real estate amount to about $150,000.

The total assets are $576,426. The total liabilities are $489,527, the principal item being bills payable, $473,000.

An effort is being made to get the company on its feet again.

The Grand Prix.

PARIS, June 15.—The Grand Prix was won by Arreau, Champaubert second and Montreuil third. Many Americans were present.

like that of Delaware, where each side to the contest were denied seats, or like that of Arizona, which the names of both parties were placed upon the roll and each delegate awarded only half of a vote. It is even suggested that a proposition may be made in the convention to make the temporary roll permanent in all but exceptional cases, which would, of course, if adopted, relieve the committee on credentials of the greater part of its labor and materially expedite the work of the convention.

The contest in the committee on resolutions is expected to be sharp, but not protracted. As it now appears there will be little or no difficulty in agreeing upon any of the planks of the platform except that relating to the financial policy of the party. With the selection of a candidate to head the ticket so completely eliminated from the realm of speculation the financial question has almost entirely monopolized the attention of party men. This question is still claiming the greater share of consideration, and will continue to hold its place in the front rank of speculation and deliberation until it is finally settled by the convention itself.

Two problems present themselves. The first of these is how much to do for silver, the second how little to do for gold. Around these questions range the speculation and the interest of all.

These lines of policy will be presented to the committee on resolutions upon meeting the different shades of opinion of the delegates. These are:

First—To declare in explicit terms for the gold standard.

Second—To take a positive stand for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, independent of the course of all other nations.

Third—To practically declare for gold and against any further recognition to silver than the present laws give, except upon international agreement, both eastern and western in terms of the gold standard and with a few words of encouragement to the friends of silver.

The contest will be principally between the advocates of the first and the second propositions, and, as it now appears, the outcome will be a compromise between these, which means, of course, that the platform will be almost all that the gold people will demand. The extreme gold forces will be led by the New York and Massachusetts delegations, seconded strongly by other eastern and Mississippi valley delegates.

The advocates of an extreme declaration for silver are confined largely to the delegations from the intermountain states, with some support from the Pacific coast and possibly a few scattering delegates from other sections. Their representation in the committee will be larger than in the convention, but neither is sufficient to obtain more than a respectful hearing. They are expected to announce that no compromise whatever will be acceptable to them, and to thus practically eliminate themselves from the work of preparing the platform.

With this feature of the silver question removed from the deliberations of the committee it is not believed that its deliberations will be greatly prolonged. One important question remaining unsettled is that of the selection of a vice presidential candidate. Next to the financial plank the filling of this place on the ticket has engaged the greatest share of speculative attention during the week, but apparently opinion has not been so well crystallized on this subject as upon others. The names of many candidates have been suggested, including those of Mr. Hobart of New Jersey, Governor Morton and General Tracy of New York, Governor Bulkeley and Senator Hawley of Connecticut, Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania, Representative Dingley of Maine, Hon. H. Clay Evans of Tennessee, Hon. M. H. De Young of California, ex-Governor D. Russell Brown and Governor Lippett of Rhode Island and Governor McAlpin of New York.

The National Republican committee has nominated the following officers: C. W. Fairbanks of Indiana for temporary chairman, C. W. Johnson of Minnesota secretary, W. E. Riley of Kentucky, C. B. Humphreys and Harry H. Smith for assistant secretaries, J. H. Stone of Michigan, F. H. Wilson of Missouri, J. C. Malloy, of Ohio, R. S. Hatcher of Indiana, and J. R. Beall of New York reading clerks. Rabbi Samuel Sale of St. Louis was chosen chaplain.

QUAY HESITATING.

He Desires to Withdraw, but His Friends Object.

St. Louis, June 15.—Senator Quay's attitude in the convention continues to be the subject of no small degree of speculation. When asked whether his name would be presented as a presidential candidate the senator replied that the matter had not been definitely determined, but that it would probably depend upon the wishes of the friends of other candidates than McKinley. Mr. Quay is in a somewhat embarrassing position. He has for some time realized the certainty in his opinion of McKinley's nomination, and has advised that the other candidates acquiesce in the inevitable and retire from the contest. Hence he finds himself hesitating between his own inclination to get out of the way of the McKinley movement and a desire to comply with the wishes of his co-workers.

A prominent member of the national committee asserted that Mr. Quay was still urging upon other candidates the advisability of allowing the McKinley nomination to be made by acclamation, and that, failing to secure their acquiescence, he would probably when Pennsylvania was reached in the roll call, withdraw from the contest and throw his Pennsylvania vote to the Ohio candidate.

THE OHIO DELEGATION.

Many Clubs Take Part in the Parade In St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 15.—All of the Ohio delegates are in except the four district delegates from Cincinnati, who arrive with the Blaine and Lincoln clubs to-day. The Tippecanoe club from Cleveland also arrives today. Many Ohio clubs and excursions have arrived, among them being the McKinley club of Canton, which is very large. Members of this club carried all secrets of articles manufactured since the tariff of 1890.

The Buckeye club of Columbus, organized while McKinley was governor, also gave a fine street parade. These clubs, all from Ohio, marched to the Southern hotel and cheered the McKinley headquarters. The Ohio clubs will join in the parade today.

It is understood that Governor Bushnell will be made chairman. Other selections will likely be as follows: On the committees: Resolutions, J. B. Foraker; credentials, A. C. Thompson; permanent organization, John A. Caldwell; rules and order of business, C. H. Grosvenor; member of national committee, C. L. Kurtz.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATES.

Governor Hastings to Be Chairman of the Delegation.

Nearly all members of the Pennsylvania delegation have arrived. A meeting of the delegates will be held tonight. It is expected that Governor Hastings will be chairman of the delegation, and there is a probability that Mr. Quay may be a member of the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Quay can be national committeeman if he wants it, but it is understood that he does not care to be a member of the committee.

In Pennsylvania there was a contest in the Third district. The contesting delegates were both admitted, each delegate having a half vote.

APPROVED BY SECRETARY SMITH

The Schedule of Allotment to the Southern Ute Indians.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The schedule of allotments to the Southern Ute Indians in Colorado, which has been hanging fire since last autumn, has been finally approved by Secretary Hoke Smith. There are 335 names on the allotment rolls.

Immediate steps will be taken by the Indian bureau to put into effect the provisions of the Indian appropriation bill, which established the main agency of the Southern Utes at Navajoe Springs in the west or unceded part of the agency and substituted a sub-agency for the old agency at Ignacio.

Thanked President Kruger.

PRETORIA, June 15.—Deputations with the mayors of all the towns of South Africa waited upon President Kruger to thank him for his clemency to the convicted reformers. President Kruger pointed to the Bible with the remark that there was his guide. He then referred to Cecil Rhodes who, he said, was acting as if he were egging on a dog fight. He, who had caused the trouble, was still unpunished.

Senator Culom Visits McKinley.

CANTON, O., June 15.—Senator Culom has reached Canton and spent the day with Major McKinley. He says there is no doubt but that McKinley will be nominated and he thinks the past 24 hours have insured a sound money platform. He has no choice for the second place.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

Colonel Francis W. Rhodes, brother of Cecil Rhodes, has been escorted to the border of the South African republic by Boer officials.

Postmaster General Wilson has issued a fraud order against Ernst Schmidt and A. E. Schmidt of St. Louis for operating a scheme for selling loaded gambling devices.

Ex-Governor Alpheus Kelch has died at Ann Arbor, Mich. He was 92 years of age and a native of Maine.

John S. Turner shot and killed his cousin, Green Turner, near Middleboro, Ky. Green's brother, Sam Turner, was killed at the same place ten days ago. All parties are connected with the famous Turner family of the Parlin-Turner feud. Fifteen of the family have died by violence.

At Tunis, ten miles from Caldwell, Tex., Jessie Massey and J. T. Chance have been foully murdered by unknown parties. Massey received 22 buckshot and Chance 12. No clew to the murderers and indignation runs high.

DYNAMITE IN HAVANA.

Explosions Destroy the Stone Bridges Near the City.

MAY CUT OFF THE WATER SUPPLY.

The Spanish Generals Decide to Suspend Operations Owing to the Rainy Season Food Is Becoming Scarce—Disease Prevalent.

HAVANA, June 15.—This city was startled and alarmed by the noise of two successive explosions, which shocked the ground for a long distance and was heard for several miles. Consternation prevailed for a time, as was feared that this was a prelude to an attack or to a series of similar explosions. Excited throngs rushed to the streets, while an armed party proceeded in the direction from which the detonations had been heard. It was soon found that the stone bridges of Christina and Conch and the aqueduct of Ferno de Septimo were the points that had suffered from the dynamite. The bridges were partially destroyed, and the pipes on the aqueduct, upon which the city is dependent for its water supply, were both damaged. It cannot yet be stated how extensive is the damage done or how long it will require to remedy it. It is believed that the insurgents are bent upon investing Havana by cutting off as much as possible the supply of necessities, though not by actually besieging it. All fruits and vegetables and fresh meats are unprecedentedly high priced and difficult to obtain, and milk is of the poorest, such as is brought in being much adulterated before it is doled out. There is much fever, and smallpox has broken out, and in the unwholesome condition of affairs threatens to become epidemic. Failure of the water supply under these conditions is a dire calamity. A council of Spanish generals has decided to suspend operations against the insurgents owing to the rains.

SILVER MEN TO FIGHT.

They Threaten to Bolt the Convention.

THEIR PROGRAM ALL ARRANGED.

Senator Teller to Lead the Movement on the Floor--Five States May Leave the Convention -- They Expect the Democrats to Name a Silver Man.

St. Louis, June 15.—The arrival of Senators Teller and Mantle has had the effect of reviving interest in the program of the silver men in the national convention. The silver contingent will be small but compact, and, it is believed, under quite perfect discipline. It will be composed principally of the delegates from the States of Colorado, Montana, Utah, Idaho and Nevada, and possibly some of the territories. The delegations from the first four states named are headed by the senators who by their votes refused to allow the Dingley tariff bill to pass the senate unless coupled with a provision for the free coinage of silver.

These delegates will demand a declaration by the convention in favor of free coinage under the conditions prevailing prior to 1873, and in case of failure to secure this, some if not all of them are expected to thereafter cease to act with the convention. It has been an open secret for several weeks that this would be their line of action, but it is not yet known whether all the delegates from these states will participate in this movement.

It is believed there will be exceptions, but who they will be, if any, will not be determined until the time shall come for their action. They will make their main fight in the committee on resolutions, but failing there as they expect to do, will probably carry the contest into the convention on a minority report which it is supposed will enable them to present their case to the convention and the country in speeches from the floor. They will probably issue an address to the country explaining their attitude.

After the conclusion of the Republican convention the silver men will probably meet to determine upon a future course. There is a probability of their placing an independent Republican silver man in nomination for the presidency with the hope of securing for him the support of the Democratic convention, but this has not been absolutely determined upon. A mass convention of silver men has been suggested for this purpose, but this idea has been practically abandoned.

THREATEN TO BOLT.

The Silver Men Will Leave the Convention Unless Recognized.

St. Louis, June 15.—Senator Dubois of Idaho and Representative Hartman of Montana have joined Senator Teller of Colorado here. There is no longer any doubt of the purpose of these radical silver men to bolt the action of the convention unless they can have their way about the financial plank. They realize that they are in a hopeless minority, and they have carefully laid their plans to walk out of the convention. The program they have arranged will probably furnish the most dramatic and sensational incident of the convention. They intend, as a preliminary, to marshal all the strength they can in the committee on resolutions for silver. They know they will fail, but instead of their attempting to secure a compromise it will be their plan to so throw their strength in the committee as to force, if possible, the adoption of a straight-out gold plank, believing that an emphatic gold declaration will put them in a more advantageous position for what is to follow. As one of them said tonight:

"If the Republican convention cannot be right we will force it to be honest. Better a gold declaration for all concerned than an equivocal plank that wears gold."

The fight will then be carried to the floor of the convention under the leadership of Senator Teller. The Colorado senator, as the head and spirit of the silver strength in the Republican party, will make a speech which, his friends say, will be the effort of his life. It will be his valedictory to the Republican party. It will be followed after the convention has voted down the minority report which he will offer by the formal announcement of the severance of the ties which bind him and his associates to the party. This will either be done in the form of a statement to the convention or of an address to the people, more probably the former. The climax will certainly be dramatic.

It is probable that Senator Teller will go immediately to Colorado and that the Republican silver men who go out with him, will remain here and issue an address to the silver voters of the country of all parties, calling upon them to support Senator Teller as the preeminent representative of the issue for president. The silver men expect to carry at least five states out of the convention with them, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, Nevada and Montana, and they are very hopeful and that the Democratic convention at Chicago will nominate the man who leads the bolt here.

MCKINLEY HEADQUARTERS.

His Leaders Think There Will Be No Trouble on the Platform.

St. Louis, June 15.—While the headquarters of some states have not been crowded, as is usually the case before the convention assemblies, this has been a big day at the rooms of the Ohio delegation known as McKinley headquarters. Some of the Ohio district delegates and Mr. Hanna are on duty there all the time, while Delegates-at-Large Foraker, Bushnell and Grosvenor and some district delegates are out visiting other state delegations and leaders.

When Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, the temporary chairman, arrived from Indianapolis Mr. Hanna and others had a long conference with him, over the keynote speech, and later this keynote speech was submitted to a conference of the McKinley leaders. It is understood that the keynote speech will be in the line of the Indiana platform, which specially declares opposition to the free and independent coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

At McKinley headquarters there is still the fullest confidence in the favorite having 633 votes on the first ballot out of a total of 918, but there is not out of any fixed slate for the nomination for vice president or any ultimatum on the currency plank. There is no trouble about the platform, except on the divergent views of the east for gold and the west for silver, while Michigan, Indiana and even Ohio, with other middle states, want the eastern idea expressed in the currency plank without the word "gold" in the phraseology of the declaration for a single standard. As Senator-elect Foraker will be pressed for the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions, it is expected that he will make the fight for a declaration for the "maintenance of the present standard," which means a single or gold standard without the use of the word "gold" before the word "standard." By the use of the word "gold" it is claimed that the campaign cry of "Gold bugs" would be used in a prejudicial manner during the canvass.

At the McKinley headquarters they expect a minority report from the silver members of the committee on resolutions. The managers are, for this reason, the more solicitous to get as many as possible to sign the majority report and to have a financial plank on which there can be general concurrence, except from the silver extremists. The McKinley men anticipate no trouble in agreeing on the other resolution, which will include Foraker's indictment of the Cleveland administration on several counts.

The McKinley managers had calls from unsuccessful contestants who thought the national committee had not decided correctly. To Hon. William M. Hahn, the Ohio member of the national committee, and Judge A. C. Thompson, the prospective Ohio member of the committee on credentials, the cases were referred.

NEW YORK WON'T BOLT.

The Decision of the Committee Considered Adverse to Platt.

St. Louis, June 15.—It has been decided that the action of the national committee on the New York contests was disastrous to Mr. Platt's friends. The districts in which he was intensely interested were those in the city of New York. He never felt alarmed about the contests in Brooklyn, and it appeared that the men who intended to contest the seats of the Platt men abandoned them and the Platt delegates were seated unanimously.

The greatest fight made was that in the Twelfth district, where Cornelius N. Bliss and S. V. R. Cruger (anti-Platt) were contesting with Platt delegates, Howard Corall and Thurlow Weed Bowes. This was the strongest case the Platt men presented, and yet the delegates secured but a half vote each, shared with the anti-Platt men. In the other districts the anti-Platt men were seated with full delegate powers. William Brookfield and Anson G. McCook in the Thirteenth and C. H. T. Collis and Robert J. Wright in the Fifteenth were seated. There was no question about the claims of Brookfield and McCook, and Mr. Sutherland, who had been fighting in Mr. Platt's interest throughout the entire meeting of the committee, claimed the right to make the motion to seat them. The most stubbornly contested case was that of the Twelfth district, which split even, as mentioned above.

The Fifteenth district was badly mixed, and there were members of the committee who thought both should be thrown out, but the Platt men did not have the assurance of the majority. Later both sides held conferences and decided not to bolt or appeal to the convention, but to abide by the decision of the national committee.

THE REED BOOM.

To Press His Candidacy With All Possible Vigor.

St. Louis, June 15.—The Reed boom was given its first impetus that it has had during the ante-convention days. The arrival of the Maine and Massachusetts delegations, with glittering badges and waving banners, gave the first real appearance of Reed's candidacy that has been seen. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, who is to place Reed in nomination, has become the recognized leader of the Reed forces, and since his arrival has been trying to gather the scattered Reed forces and retrieve the losses that have occurred in the past few days. Mr. Lodge has visited several of the anti-McKinley leaders, calling upon Mr. Platt, Mr. Quay and members of the Iowa delegation.

Chairman Littlefield of the Maine delegation, who will probably second Reed's nomination, has always been for Reed. He has had the Reed headquarters formally opened, and the delegation had a meeting, in which steps were taken toward pressing the candidacy of Reed with all possible spirit.

REED MEN JUBILANT.

A Colored Mass Meeting Endorses His Candidacy.

St. Louis, June 15.—The Reed men are jubilant over the result of a colored mass meeting held at which representatives from Florida, Alabama and South Carolina declared for Mr. Reed and practically withdrew their names from the McKinley column.

The meeting was called by Congressman Murray of South Carolina, the only colored representative in congress. About 200 colored delegates and alternates attended, and there was great enthusiasm when Delegate Johnson of Alabama, who has been accounted a McKinley man, spoke for Mr. Reed, as did Caleb Simms of New York and Mr. J. Christopher.

Gov. Bradley Formally Withdraws.

St. Louis, June 15.—Governor Bradley withdraws. Delegate Yerkes of Kentucky has received a telegram from Governor Bradley announcing that his name would not be presented to the convention. This has been in the governor's mind for some time. Governor Bradley arrives here today to engage actively in the contest in behalf of a platform declaration for a gold standard.

Ohl's Trial Will Be Exciting.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—Witnesses are being summoned for the approaching trial of ex-Senator L. C. Ohl of Mahoning county, who is under three indictments for bribery in connection with his legislative career. This trial will be the most exciting of them all, and some of the best known men in the state will be called as witnesses.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—General L. E. Powell, one of the attorneys of A. J. White of Paskola fame, stated that the petition in the $200,000 damage suit which Mr. White proposes to bring against Food and Dairy Commissioner McNeal, Judge Ames Dye, Dr. J. A. Storratt and others would be filed some time this week.

Must Petition to Get on the Ballot.

COLUMBUS, June 15.—Secretary of State Taylor states that the new National party in its national convention at Pittsburgh, can only get its state ticket upon the Australian ballot by petition. The party having no previous existence, it cannot go on the ballot by certification, as is the case with the old parties.

a Lonesome Existence by

JOINING HANDS AND FORTUNES

All Arrangements Were Made and the Prospective Groom Went to Toronto Saturday, Where the Ceremony Was to Take Place—He Returned This Morning.

The little rogue, Cupid, was playing his mischievous pranks at a white granite pottery Friday. As a result, the hearts of a widow and widower were pierced by his amorous shaft and they now beat in unison.

On the above afternoon a buxom widow called at the office of the pottery as agent for a revolutionizing tack puller, representing it as just the thing to keep sulphuric atmosphere out of the household. She carried a small board in which was inserted a number of tacks, which were removed in a jiffy by her wonderful little instrument. It wouldn't sell, however, as the bookkeeper said he left the purchase of household necessities in charge of his wife. The other members of the office force were solicited with the same result, and the lady became angry because they would not invest in her wares. She left the room muttering something about a mean and stingy set.

The agent then sought the decorating department, and here met her fate. Approaching a kilnman she began to tell of the merits of her tack puller, but was cut short by that gentleman informing her that he was a widower and had no use for an article of that kind. She was surprised to see such a noble looking man all alone in the world, and incidentally mentioned that she was a widow. A chance for a match instantly dawned upon the kilnman, and he invited her to be seated on a step near by. Taking a seat alongside, the pair soon became engrossed in a conversation that had nothing to do with tack pullers, moving closer to each other at intervals until a pin could not be placed between them. The widow poured into the ears of the widower a story of the lonely life she had been living since the death of her husband and he exchanged sympathy by saying he was in the same boat, and that a speedy remedy for their ills would be a few words by a minister, which would make them one. The lady acquiesced, and incidentally mentioned that she owned two lots in Canton, on one of which was erected a cosy little home. They then parted for the time being, but met again in the evening, when further arrangements for the wedding were made.

The kilnman called at the office Saturday afternoon and informed the manager of his intentions, requesting his pay early, that he might get the necessary articles to complete his toilet. Donning his best clothes, including a white shirt and collar, which he had not worn for years, he left on the 3:40 train for Toronto, where he was to meet his bride.

The kilnman returned home this morning without a partner to his joys and sorrows, and whether or not he was entwined in the bonds of wedlock is a matter of conjecture, as he refuses to talk on the subject.

A RICH TREAT.

Don't You Miss Witnessing the Coming Entertainment.

On next Tuesday night, June 16, at the Grand Opera House, East Liverpool, will appear Miss Stella Stanton, heralded as the "World's Greatest Posing and Pantomime." This talented lady comes into our city with the very warmest testimonials from competent judges. She is an artist, indeed, as an elocutionist and dramatic reader, and the residents of our city should not fail to hear her. In delicate delineations she has no superior, while her elocutionary powers, in pathos and humor, are simply wonderful. She is natural, graceful and original. She appears in this city under the auspices of the Rechabite societies. Secure your tickets at once.

McKinley Club Demonstration
When the News is Received.

PUBLIC INVITED TO PARTICIPATE

A Committee Will Confer With the Republican Central Committee Tonight and Make a Few Preliminary Arrangements. No Program Prepared.

The McKinley club resolved, at the special meeting held Saturday night, to have a demonstration upon receiving the intelligence of Major McKinley's nomination on the Republican ticket for the presidency. A committee from the club was appointed to confer with the Republican central committee and make such preliminary arrangements as they may deem necessary. The celebration will be rather an informal affair, as no especially prepared program has been arranged. A general invitation is extended to the public to join with the club in jollifying, and those who admire the gallant ex-governor of Ohio can, by their hearty co-operation on this occasion, fittingly display their appreciation of his worth.

The enthusiasm, although it will not be a tame affair by any means, will not be as great as it otherwise would have been had the fight for the nomination been a close one. That McKinley will be the choice of the party has been a foregone conclusion for some time. In realizing this the demonstration will not be so pronounced as it would be if the major had only received the coveted position by a narrow margin.

Coal, Coal.

There is full truth in the old saying that "one man's loss is another man's gain." A barge of Pittsburgh coal was consigned to East Liverpool; accident ensued and the coal went down beneath the waters, resting there in the barge some seven or eight hours, and was again brought to the surface, uninjured, save in appearance. Will now be sold at one cent per bushel lower than market rates. Coal is now ready for inspection. It is a bargain. Call, at once, at MOORE'S COAL YARD, Foot of Broadway.

JOINING HANDS AND FORTUNES

All Arrangements Were Made and the Prospective Groom Went to Toronto Saturday, Where the Ceremony Was to Take Place—He Returned This Morning.

The little rogue, Cupid, was playing his mischievous pranks at a white granite pottery Friday. As a result, the hearts of a widow and widower were pierced by his amorous shaft and they now beat in unison.

On the above afternoon a buxom widow called at the office of the pottery as agent for a revolutionizing tack puller, representing it as just the thing to keep sulphuric atmosphere out of the household. She carried a small board in which was inserted a number of tacks, which were removed in a jiffy by her wonderful little instrument. It wouldn't sell, however, as the bookkeeper said he left the purchase of household necessities in charge of his wife. The other members of the office force were solicited with the same result, and the lady became angry because they would not invest in her wares. She left the room muttering something about a mean and stingy set.

The agent then sought the decorating department, and here met her fate. Approaching a kilnman she began to tell of the merits of her tack puller, but was cut short by that gentleman informing her that he was a widower and had no use for an article of that kind. She was surprised to see such a noble looking man all alone in the world, and incidentally mentioned that she was a widow. A chance for a match instantly dawned upon the kilnman, and he invited her to be seated on a step near by. Taking a seat alongside, the pair soon became engrossed in a conversation that had nothing to do with tack pullers, moving closer to each other at intervals until a pin could not be placed between them. The widow poured into the ears of the widower a story of the lonely life she had been living since the death of her husband and he exchanged sympathy by saying he was in the same boat, and that a speedy remedy for their ills would be a few words by a minister, which would make them one. The lady acquiesced, and incidentally mentioned that she owned two lots in Canton, on one of which was erected a cosy little home. They then parted for the time being, but met again in the evening, when further arrangements for the wedding were made.

The kilnman called at the office Saturday afternoon and informed the manager of his intentions, requesting his pay early, that he might get the necessary articles to complete his toilet. Donning his best clothes, including a white shirt and collar, which he had not worn for years, he left on the 3:46 train for Toronto, where he was to meet his bride.

The kilnman returned home this morning without a partner to his joys and sorrows, and whether or not he was entwined in the bonds of wedlock is a matter of conjecture, as he refuses to talk on the subject.

A RICH TREAT.

Don't You Miss Witnessing the Coming Entertainment.

On next Tuesday night, June 16, at the Grand Opera House, East Liverpool, will appear Miss Stella Stanton, heralded as the "World's Greatest Poser and Pantomime." This talented lady comes into our city with the very warmest testimonials from competent judges. She is an artist, indeed, as an elocutionist and dramatic reader, and the residents of our city should not fail to hear her. In darsarte delineations she has no superior, while her elocutionary powers, in pathos and humor, are simply wonderful. She is natural, graceful and original. She appears in this city under the auspices of the Rechabite societies. Secure your tickets at once.

"THE MORADO."

This is the Wheel of Wheels—It Leads the Market.

Bike riders will be delighted to learn that they can purchase a strictly first class, $100 wheel, for the sum of $65. It is a genuine beauty, made of the very best materials, and is not surpassed by any wheel in the land, no matter how high priced. It is a splendid roadster and will stand any test a wheel should be put to. You can secure this wheel for $65, spot cash, by calling on Henry Chambers & Son, East End. The Morado is manufactured in Beaver Falls, and is a general favorite. The sales are already tremendous.

McKinley Club Demonstration
When the News is Received.

PUBLIC INVITED TO PARTICIPATE

A Committee Will Confer With the Republican Central Committee Tonight and Make a Few Preliminary Arrangements. No Program Prepared.

The McKinley club resolved, at the special meeting held Saturday night, to have a demonstration upon receiving the intelligence of Major McKinley's nomination on the Republican ticket for the presidency. A committee from the club was appointed to confer with the Republican central committee and make such preliminary arrangements as they may deem necessary. The celebration will be rather an informal affair, as no especially prepared program has been arranged. A general invitation is extended to the public to join with the club in jollifying, and those who admire the gallant ex-governor of Ohio can, by their hearty co-operation on this occasion, fittingly display their appreciation of his worth.

The enthusiasm, although it will not be a tame affair by any means, will not be as great as it otherwise would have been had the fight for the nomination been a close one. That McKinley will be the choice of the party has been a foregone conclusion for some time. In realizing this the demonstration will not be so pronounced as it would be if the major had only received the coveted position by a narrow margin.

Coal, Coal.

There is full truth in the old saying that "one man's loss is another man's gain." A barge of Pittsburgh coal was consigned to East Liverpool; accident ensued and the coal went down beneath the waters, resting there in the barge some seven or eight hours, and was again brought to the surface, uninjured, save in appearance. Will now be sold at one cent per bushel lower than market rates. Coal is now ready for inspection. It is a bargain. Call, at once, at MOORE'S COAL YARD, Foot of Broadway.
